

r:\New\117621TrafficVolume10f2.dwg - 08/12/03 - PP

Source: Alta Transportation 2001

A reversal of the one-way traffic direction on East Cliff Drive from eastbound to westbound would be counter to the prevailing east-to-west traffic pattern in the area, would result in a "looping" driving pattern in the study area causing an increase in vehicle miles traveled (VMT), and would increase neighborhood intrusion and "cut-through" by motorists.

Expected Traffic Volumes Following Reversal of One-Way Traffic

Santa Cruz, California